

MSTC Anglers,

The 2017 Morgan Stanley Triple Crown Tournament (MSTCT) is over. Attached please find the final standings for the four month long contest.

During the final week, a 26 inch Redfish was reported by Diana Doench which moved Diana up to 12th place. It is worth mentioning that earlier in the tournament, Diana lost a Tarpon at the end of a long battle which would have placed her in 5th place if she would have been able to register the fish.

This year Ed Brown, the 2012 MSTC winner, takes first place with an impressive 215 points and a cash prize of $350. Allan Bristow, last year's winner comes in second with 204.5 points and wins $300. Victor Ordija hangs on to third place with 203.5 points and $250. Fourth place goes to Jim Doench with 202 points and $200. Gary Clostley takes fifth place and earns $150.

For anglers that did not qualify in the top five places, Ron Scriver caught the largest Snook (39") and wins $100. The largest Redfish (28.75") caught was registered by John (aka Jersey) Marchetti also for $100.

Awards will be presented to the above anglers at the December 2017 general meeting. Congratulations to all the prize winners and a big thanks to all the participants. Last but not least, a note of gratitude to our generous sponsors; Stephen Macko , David Caruso and Jason Zapalski, the Compass Group investment team at Morgan Stanley.
